Concert for the poor

The concert in Paul VI Hall “with the poor and for the poor” was born out of the desire to offer a cultural and spiritual moment of inclusion’s evening for socially marginalized people and, at the same time, to represent an opportunity to collect offers to support the initiatives for the World Day of the Poor.

Through voluntary and solidarity associations, we involve homeless, families in difficulty and the many people in situations of fragility and precariousness that normally cannot live this experience, to whom front-row seats will be reserved within the Paul VI Hall.

We offer this meditation music event to live a moment of faith and charity, working together with great artists, sensitive to the project, who provide their skills free of charge.
